PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By John Hommel

November 2013 President's Message

It has been a busy few weeks for the Carle Place Civic Association and it is refreshing to see the community support that we have received.

On October 16th we held our annual Candidates Night, featuring candidates for both Town and County offices. This was the first time in memory that we had both candidates for the County Executives office come to Carle Place! We also heard from both County Comptroller candidates and many of the Judicial and Town Candidates. Although neither of the candidates for North Hempstead Supervisor could make it due to a debate, we did hear from Anthony Bulzomi and Viviana Russell, the candidates vying to represent us on the Town Council.

Many of you in the community came out to show your support for Carle Place and let these candidates know that we will come together in numbers for our community. There is strength in numbers, no question! The message is getting out that Carle Place demands representation and is willing to come out and make our voice heard.

By the time this issue of the Frog Horn comes out we will know who will be representing our community at the Town and County. During this election cycle many issues have come to the forefront for our community and we will commit to making sure Carle Place gets the services we deserve! Hopefully you made use of your constitutional right to VOTE!!!

We also had the 34th running of the Carle Place Civic Association Fun Run/Walk on October 27th. This year's event was a great success due to the support of many community members and, of course, the runners and walkers! With over 100 runners/walkers and sunny skies, it was a great day!

Special Thanks to the following:

Bob Greco, who always puts on a show of his own at the finish line!

Dave Evans for helping with set up and finish line timing!

Superintendent David Flatley for starting us off!

The CP School District maintenance and facility staff!

The Carle Place Fire Department for EMS support!

Jim and Peggy Wilde for committing their time for registration, set up and just being there when we needed them!

Everyone that pitched in at the intersections, water stations, etc.

And especially Christine Imrie who put it all together!!

These two events are examples of the great community we have and the commitment to keeping it great!! Let's keep it going! Come out to the Civic Association general meetings which are listed in the Frog Horn and find out what is going on!

This is our community! Let's work together!

Carle Place Athletic Booster Club

by John Hommel

The Carle Place Athletic Booster Club would like to thank all those that came by our table at Homecoming! It was a great night with the CP Varsity football team coming away with a great win! And many were able to pick up a shirt, hat, blanket, etc. from the Booster Club's wide variety of available items. If you haven't already done so, you need to check out the Booster Club's items for sale, especially with the Christmas season coming!!

The Carle Place Athletic Booster and Physical Education Foundation Club (CPABC) seeks to encourage involvement and support of our students in the Middle School and High School athletic programs. Our efforts to support the athletic programs are dependent on membership contributions, merchandise sales and our annual Casino Night (Jan. 25th). The funds raised through your membership contribution enable the CPABC to donate and fund needed equipment, scholarships, tournament sponsorships, and funding to assist teams that have successfully advanced to statewide competition. We annually award scholarships to one or more of our graduating senior athletes.

Currently, the boys and girls High School Soccer, Girls Volleyball and Field Hockey teams are on there way to very successful seasons, each reaching the playoffs. By the time this issue comes out we will know just how successful. GOOD LUCK TO ALL!!!!

There was recently an event in CP that many have been talking about, although this wasn't organized by the Booster Club, we wanted to make mention of it;

It was the first Annual Men's Soccer Alumni game. This event was put together by Danny Carlos graduated 04' his brother Dave 06' and their Mom. Approximately 50 alumni attended and for a very reasonable fee were given 2 tee shirts, good catered food and drinks. They were divided into 5 teams and played like they were 17 again. The graduate years in attendance ranged from 1985 to 2013.

The day began by watching this year's undefeated boy's varsity beating Cold Spring Harbor, 2 --0.

Then there was a ceremony honoring past varsity boys coaches Dave Evans, John Strassenreiter, Andy Demakopoulos, and Present coaches Allen Foraker and his Asst. Coach Dan Krause. Also in attendance and showing support were Superintendent of Schools David Flatley, Athletic Director Chris Ceruti, and Neil Connelly retired High School Principal, plus several teachers. There aren't enough words to acknowledge how much work and planning the Carlos family put into this event, but it was a huge success and judging by the joy in the young men seeing one another with their families and children spoke for itself.

Remember to join the CP Athletic Booster Club and save the date Jan 25th for Casino Night!!

11 Years and Going Strong!!!

SENIOR CITIZENS

By John T. Heslin

In 2014, the Carle Place Senior Citizens will celebrate their 50th anniversary as a club. In all those years, we have never had a County Executive as a guest speaker – until now. On October 22nd County Executive Edward P. Mangano visited our center and spoke to ninety members. He also mingled and answered any questions. The Seniors were also given the opportunity to obtain County issued photo identification cards.

The Seniors Holiday Craft Fair will be held at the Charles Fuschillo Park on Tuesday, November 19th. All items are hand-crafted by the Seniors' craft group under the leadership of Ann Mascola. Also, watch for news on our upcoming Christmas/Holiday Party at the Westbury Manor on December 5th.

St. Francis Hospital's Free Health-Screening bus will be at the Charles Fuschillo Park on January 14, 2014 from 10 AM to 2 PM. All are welcome. Must be 18 years or older.

The Hamlet of Carle Place was discovered on prime time TV on the new hit series, Hostages, seen on CBS on Monday nights. Several episodes were filmed in the high school, on the football field, and in the parking lot on Cherry Lane.

In March 2014, the Seniors will be celebrating their 50th Anniversary with a gala at the Westbury Manor. In conjunction with this event, a celebratory journal will be published. If you are interested in placing an ad or extending congratulations in the journal, please contact Barbara Heslin at (516) 997-7271. Our club continues to grow in numbers with new members Ruth Carr, Isabel Cava, and Robert Van Holke. If you want more information on how you, too, can become a member, please call me at 997-7271 or email me at cpseiniorcitizens@yahoo.com.

Get well wishes are extended to Rosemary Martens and Flo Tesoriere.

Shooting the Breeze

By Fred Moreno

I'm pretty sure it was The Who that sang, "We won't get fooled again." That's what I kept singing to myself recently when I announced that for some dumb reason I was going to have another – GARAGE SALE.

The first thing I did was to call for a meeting with myself and review all the mistakes I made during my first disaster back in 2003. It was one bad move after another:

* Allowing that guy to actually take a shower in my upstairs bathroom so he could try out the different sprays on the shower head I was selling for 75 cents will not happen again.

* I will now enforce the Don't Ask, Don't Tell law of garage sales by selling the item then keeping my mouth shut. Last time, I asked this 75 year old guy why he was buying my old hockey helmet. He said he was tired of his wife hitting him off the head with her cane whenever he came home late. PS: his girlfriend suggested the helmet.

* I promise not to sell any food items. During the last garage sale, I had my wife make these mini-quiches which I was selling for 50 cents each. At one point, this lady was reaching for a piece and, as if on cue, a fly landed on it and did an Irish jig. The lady and I had a major stare down. I mean it was an eyeball to eyeball, a High Noon exchange of irises and retinas. Witnesses say the showdown may have lasted three minutes as the fly now was now attempting a quadruple somersault. I broke first and uttered the words that she didn't want to hear, "All right, make it 40 cents for the quiche." It took my wife two days to remove the quiche stains from my shirt.

But...Here are the HEADLINES from Garage Sale 2013 ...
See the Difference

6:30am: Major collapse of closet door used as table. Glassware slid down wooden ski slope. Thought about scene from Titanic. Sound would have rivaled all the windows in UN shattering at once.

6:35am: First customer. Looking for anything copper or aluminum. Quote: "I only have some heavy metal albums." Didn't appreciate my sense of humor.

7:05am: Senior citizen in search of knives and/or bayonets. Thought he was World War II or Korean vet. Wrong on both counts. An amateur magician. Played the Assisted Living circuit. Sun barely rose and Houdini visited me. Story of my life

7:25am: Lady made beeline to floral table. Grabbed chrysanthemum seedlings. Paid 75 cents without haggling. Asked for garbage bag. Dumped seedlings and top soil into trash bag. Just wanted three inch aluminum pan seedlings were planted in. Questioned her motives. Yelled at me to mind my business. Wanted me to apologize. I did.

7:50am: Welcomed man wearing top hat. Another magician? No. Just looking for old car batteries. Needed four more to complete project. Owned mechanic shop. Used batteries as a border to line shop's driveway. Didn't want battery I had for sale. Had to be a Die Hard to match his others. People like this find me. And it wasn't even 8:00am.

8:05am: Selling bicycle for $15. Teenager interested in kickstand only. Offered $5. Quote: "I'm not selling parts." Firm on price for entire bike! Punk proposed compromise. Said I could keep kickstand. Offered $10 for bike. Settled on $13.50. Never sold kickstand.

8:15am: Vertigo starting to kick in. Lady began fidgeting with my $260 cuckoo clock. On sale for $80. Only offered $40. Reason? Quote: "Essence of clock had been marred." Translation? Bird only chirped "cuc, cuc, cuc." Missing three "kooos." Quote: "No 'koo' after the 'cuc' means onomatopoeia is ruined." Final offer-$40.75! What nerve! Took the money! Head spinning. Ran inside. Not for aspirin. Had to look up "onomatopoeia."

8:20am: Neighbor brought over ten items in laundry wagon. Didn't sell any. Accidentally sold wagon. Got $2. Hasn't spoken to me since. Am her son's Godfather!

8:35am: 85 yr. old walk-up. Quote: "At your sale ten years ago." Didn't remember him. Wanted hockey helmets. Then I remembered. Was the excuse I needed. Put the word "FREE" on each table. Items vanished in a Houdini second—including kickstand.

First garage sale ever that was OVER by 9:00am! Guess I was fooled again!

EYE OF THE HURRICANE

By Bob Greco

GREAT STUFF ABOUT "LONG ISLAND" thanks to Robin Caras-----ENJOY!!

Mastic was the home of William Floyd, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence.

Long Island's first two settlements were Southold and Southampton ... in 1640.

Deep Hollow Ranch in Montauk is the site of the oldest cattle ranch in America, built in 1658, and birthplace of the American cowboy.

The Lighthouse at Montauk became New York's first coastal beacon in 1796.

The first radio transmission, by wireless inventor Guglielmo Marconi, was in 1901 in Babylon.

In 1927, Charles Lindbergh took off from Roosevelt Field, as he flew the first non-stop solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean.

America's first supermarket, King Kullen, started on Long Island in 1930.

Levittown, the first suburbia in the U.S., was built on Long Island in 1947.

The Lunar Module which landed men on the moon in 1969, was built on Long Island by the Grumman Corp.

Long Island is the largest island among the 48 contiguous states.

The only working water mill and windmill in the US are located in the Long Island community of Water Mill.

Richard Nixon's deceased dog Checkers is buried at Long Island's Bide-a-Wee Pet Cemetery.

When the Brooklyn Bridge was completed in 1883, it became the first land-transport route between Long Island and mainland USA. Before that, the only way to travel between the two was by boat.

Long Island was sculpted by melted glaciers, which is why there is a clear difference between the hilly North Shore and the flat South Shore of Long Island.

Long Island is the most populated island in the United States and the 17th most populated island in the world. Interesting fact: Long Island is more populated than the entire country of Jamaica and of Ireland! If Long Island was its own state, it would rank 12th in terms of population.

The largest industrial park in the US is located on Long Island - The Hauppauge Industrial Park which houses 1,300 companies and employs more than 55,000 people.

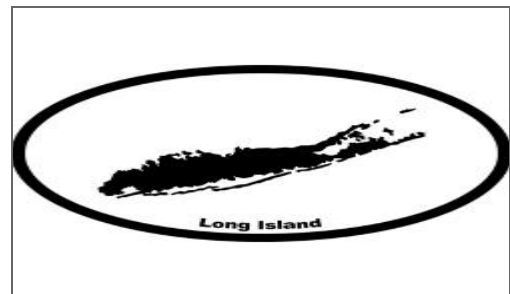

Together Nassau and Suffolk counties nearly 180 fire agencies possess more fire trucks than New York City and Los Angeles County combined. Suffolk County is the leading agricultural county in New York State based on the wholesale value of its farm products.

More 7-Eleven coffee is purchased on Long Island than in all of California.

Long Island has hosted seven U.S. golf open tournaments.

"Hostages" is high-octane suspense drama that centers on Dr. Ellen Sanders, a premier surgeon thrust into a chilling political conspiracy when she and her family are held captive in their home by rogue FBI Agent Duncan Carlisle, a desperate man doing the wrong thing for the right reasons, who orders Dr. Sanders to assassinate the President when she operates on him. Its episodes have been filmed in the eye of the hurricane and on the grounds of Carle Place High School, home of the "Frogs."

The only thing new is the history you don't know, in the eye of the hurricane.

How Do I Know if I Have a Problem with Gum Disease

Periodontal (gum) disease often develops silently, with no warning signs. That's why it's important to visit your dentist regularly. Your dentist can check your teeth and gums and take x-rays, if necessary, to diagnose possible problems.

It's important that you be aware of the "eight silent signs" that may be symptoms of periodontal disease:

1. Gums that bleed when you brush your teeth.
2. Red, swollen or tender gums.
3. Gums that have pulled away from your teeth.
4. Puss that appears between your teeth and gums when the gums are pressed.
5. Teeth that are becoming loose or that are changing position.
6. Any change in the way your teeth fit together when you bite.
7. Any change in the way your partial dentures fit.
8. Persistent bad breath or bad taste.

Please call your dentist for an appointment if you've noticed any of these changes. To remove plaque, you should brush twice daily and clean between your teeth daily with floss or interdental cleaners. Regular dental visits and professional cleanings are essential.

BETTER SCHOOLS BETTER COMMUNITIES By Bob

The "Mayflower Compact" was signed on 11 November 1620 onboard the Mayflower shortly after she came to anchor off Provincetown Harbor. The Pilgrims had obtained permission from English authorities to settle in Virginia, whose northern border at the time extended up to what is now New York. They had originally intended to settle near the mouth of the Hudson River, but due to dangerous shoals and a near shipwreck on their attempt to head south, they decided instead to plant themselves outside the bounds of the Virginia Company. The Mayflower Compact was an attempt to establish a temporary, legally-binding form of self-government.

The original Compact has been lost, and perhaps fell victim to Revolutionary War looting. A copy of it is found in William Bradford's handwritten history, Of Plymouth Plantation, created about 1630.

The first words spoken to the Pilgrims by a native American, Squanto, were "Welcome, Englishmen!" Squanto was a Pawtuxet native who had lived in Europe for several years and had been trading with the English in Cape Cod Bay for many years before the Pilgrims arrived.

The Pilgrims, who were of the Puritan faith, came to the new World to build a better life for their children. They toiled and starved and died in that effort. They laid the foundations of democracy on our continent as they set up a democratic form of government away from the monarchy of "divine right," and created the first foothold for the natural rights of man.

Pilgrim parents, children and community came together to face and overcome unforeseen hardship and personal tragedy. Their fragile community built schools, churches, and sustenance as they clawed their way to religious and personal freedom built upon community sacrifice and cooperation. Even then that powerful partnership created the original building blocks of America.

Happy Thanksgiving and let's give thanks for all we enjoy, with deep appreciation for the sacrifice of people and institutions we never knew, whose legacy lives on in better schools and better communities.

IT'S THE LAW

By Francis X. Moroney, Esq.

Over the past several months I have found myself representing a number of clients with issues related to Trusts. One of the remarkable things about the law is how flexible it can be.

I have learned that many people who act as trustees, do so without knowing the basics about trusts. So I thought I would deal with some of the ABC's of trusts in the hope that if any readers may remember that in all things you need to return to basics.

The First area of discussion will be irrevocable trusts.

Irrevocable trusts may be created during a person's life. This is called an inter vivos trust. Or an irrevocable trust may be created under a Will. This is called a testamentary trust. But not all irrevocable trusts are really irrevocable! Here's the scoop.

An irrevocable trust may be amended or revoked. Under the Estate Powers and Trust Law if all the people who have a beneficial interest in trust property consent in writing, the maker of a trust (called a creator under the law) may revoke or amend a trust.

There are strict requirements relating to the form that must be used to effect any amendment or revocation, so don't try this on your own.

Is that all there is? No, if real estate was transferred into the irrevocable trust the papers signed consenting to the amendments or revocation AND the papers effecting the amendments or revocation must all be recorded. Also if there are disabled or minor persons with a beneficial interest in the trust property, then it cannot be revoked or amended. BUT there are court decisions that have allowed a revocation or amendment IF it can be shown that the changes are favorable to the minor or disabled beneficiary.

The trustee may also have the right to amend an irrevocable trust. But here the creator of the trust must use clear language that does not limit the power of the trustee to invade trust property and allows the trustee to exercise discretion in a broad manner.

The key to success in all this is proper draftsmanship. If you do not identify the beneficial interests of the beneficiaries of the trust or you limit the power of the trustee this won't work. As always the devil is in the details.

As the loyal readers of this column know -- you need to hire competent counsel and seek and receive good advice. So be careful and ask questions! There are a host of "ifs, ands & buts."
